GREENVILLE

Father Mathew T. A. Society Elects Officers—Mrs. James Bowker Fell and Broke Leg.

The annual meeting of the Father Mathew Total Abstinence society was held in their hall Thursday with a large number of members and guests.
President Joseph Bellefleur opened the meeting, and the reports of the various officers were read, showing the society to be prospering in membership and finances. The following officers were elected: Chaplain, Rev. J.
J. Smith; president, Joseph Bellefleur; vice-president, Joseph O'Sullivan; recording secretary, Leodore Gladue; financial secretary, Leonelle Elhier; treasurer, Joseph A. Donnelly; sergeant at arms, Simon J. Fahney; directors, Charles Yerrington, Matthew Sullivan, David J. Farrell, Edward Sweeney, Frank Harrington; society editor, Leodore Gladue.

Father Smith was present at the meeting and his remarks and those of other members were received with applause.

The installation of officers will take place next week Thursday, and County President Maurice P. Fitzgerald will be present for this work.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Mrs. James Bowker Suffered Broken Leg Wednesday Morning.

A severe accident befell Mrs. James Bowker of No. 385 Central avenue on Wednesday morning about 8 o'clock, when she fell down stairs and broke her leg just above the ankle. Mrs.
Bowker was about to go down the stairs, and on the second step, from the top was a round tin cup. She did not see the cup, and when she stepped on it she lost her balance and fell the length of the stairs. Dr. L. F.
Lapierre set the bone. Mrs. Bowker has many friends who regret to hear of her misfortune.

Personals.
Mark Hutchinson of Salem, Mass., is the guest of his brother, Fred Hutchinson of Prospect street.

Fred Spencer of Central avenue, who has been ill with pleurisy, was able to be out of bed for a short time Thursday.

Andrew McLaughlin is moving this week from his present residence to his new home, on lower Central avenue.

Mrs. C. E. Douglas and son, William, of Hickory street, have been guests this week of Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Barber of Spring Lake farm, South Canterbury.

TAFTVILLE

Annual Meeting of Congregational Church—Reports Read and Officers Elected, With Social Hour—Funeral of Mrs. Joseph Fuller.

The annual meeting of the Taftville Congregational church was held on Thursday evening in the church parlors, with an attendance of over 100. After the regular midweek service of singing, prayer and scripture reading, the various reports were read and accepted. The reports of Clerk William Brierly and Treasurer G. N. Beardslow showed that the church is in excellent condition as to its membership and finances, and starts the year with every prospect of increasing its influence for good in the community.

The report of the Ladies' Missionary society, read by the secretary and treasurer, Miss Gertrude Young, and that of the Ladies' Benevolent society, given by the secretary, Miss Anna M.
Beardow, were heard with satisfaction.
A most interesting review of the year's work in the Sunday school was given by Supt. Frederic J. Werking, who took occasion to urge still greater interest in this department of church work. The pastor, Rev. Donald B.
MacLane, followed with his annual report, which showed a progressive and successful year.

After the roll call, which was read by Clerk Brierly, came the annual election. William Brierly and George N.
Beardow were re-elected clerk and treasurer, respectively. Nathan S.
Bushnell was chosen deacon to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Frank Hampson. This church committee was elected: Archibald Torrance, chairman, Mrs. William Webster, Mrs. William Brierly. The business meeting was closed with benediction by the pastor.

A social hour completed the evening, coffee, sandwiches and cake being served by Mrs. William Webster, Mrs.
Frank Hampson, of Moosup, Mrs.
Archibald Kyle, Mrs. James Graham, Mrs. Archibald Torrance and Mrs. William Brierly, assisted by these young

CHURCHES HAVE ANNUAL MEETINGS

Reports were Very Satisfactory Showing Gains in Funds and Members—Officers Elected for the Ensuing Year

The members of Broadway Congregational church and congregation gathered in the Sunday school rooms Thursday evening for the annual meeting, at which there was a good sized attendance. Rev. Edward S. Worcester, pastor of the church, presided over the meeting. The report of the clerk, Walter F. Lester, showed the membership of the church to be 618, there having been 33 additions during the year, 16 removals and 14 deaths.
Treasurer F. J. Leavens in his report of the finances showed the total disbursement to be $21,655.93. Of that amount the sum of $8,892.71 was for Broadway church, while the remainder, $12,763.22, was for outside work and missions. The report was an unqualifiedly pleasing one, as it showed the year ended with a surplus. During the 12 years since the church was incorporated there has never been a deficit.

The report for the board of trustees was made by Gen. W. A. Alken, who gave a comprehensive statement of the work during the year, during which many complex questions came up for decision. The sale of the Buckingham chapel was also spoken of. The unqualified committee made a full report of the attendance at the service, together with the number of strangers seated and those present on the different Sundays. There were also reports from the other organizations of the church.

Two deacons were re-elected for four years, B. P. Hodge and Thomas Browning. Mr. Browning was previously elected to fill out the unexpired term of the late Kirk Leavens.
To fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nathan L. Bishop, B. P. Hodge was elected. A resolution of acknowledgment and thanks was passed for the gift to the church of the bronze bust of Beethoven by C. W.
Scott of Springfield.

Gen. W. A. Alken was re-elected a member of the board of trustees for a period of three years and a special committee Herbert W. Gallup, Henry G. Peck and E. H. Linnell. Mr.
D. J. Nelson, secretary, reported the re-elected superintendent of the Sunday school and F. L. Woodard as andicator. These committees were named: Finance, E. P. Bishop, chairman, H.
W. Gallup, E. B. Hodge, J. L. Case, Harold Burt, music, Rev. E. S. Worcester, Gen. W. A. Alken, Miss Huntington, Miss Leabie Mitchell, house, Mrs. B. Hyde, Mrs. J. C. Averill, Mrs. F. S. Camp.

Mention being made of the death of Rev. Dr. Nelson Millard, it was voted that the pastor should communicate with his son, Ernest B. Millard, expressing the deep regret of the church at hearing of Mr. Millard's death and expressing sympathy with the family in their loss.

This concluded the business meeting and it was followed by a social hour, during which refreshments were served by the following committee from the Woman's association: Mrs. F. J. Leavens, Mrs. B. W. Hyde, Mrs. J. L. Case, Mrs. J. C. Averill, Mrs. J. L. Case, good, Mrs. H. W. Gallup, Miss Helen Browning had charge of the waiters.
The rooms were prettily decorated with red and green.

Central Baptist Church.
The seventeenth annual meeting of the Central Baptist church was held on Thursday evening in the lecture room, having been preceded by a supper served by the ladies in Bushnell chapel. Every seat at the supper tables was filled and an inviting menu was served.

There was also a large attendance at the business meeting, occupying all the seats in the lecture room, when called to order at 7:30 by the pastor, Rev. P. C. Wright. The minutes were kept by the clerk, George A.
Smith.

The annual letter to the church from the pastor, Rev. P. C. Wright, noted an increased desire on the part of very many to co-operate in the spread of Christ's kingdom here and there-where. He spoke of the blessing to the church life derived through the evangelistic campaign and stated that the greatest need for the church at the present time is an assistant worker, as he finds it wholly impossible to meet all the demands of the work.

The report of the clerk, George A.
Smith, the following membership showing was made: Resident, 524; non-resident, 153; total, 677; additions during the year, by baptism 18, by letter 6; by experience 1; decreased by death 7, by letter 3, by certificate 4.
Net gain, 6.

Financials amounting to $21,655.93 are reported on hand by the three trustees—A. Thatcher, Otis, John H.
Powelson and Charles W. Gale—from which an income of $988.56 is derived.
Treasurer C. Edward Smith's report showed disbursements of $11,714.14 in the benevolence department, and a balance of $923.45. In the women's department the expense of $5,442.46 has been met by the contributions from all sources.

Reports were made for the different societies and organizations of the church as follows: Deacons, Charles R.
Gallup, secretary; board of managers, Adams P. Carroll, president; East-Young People's union, Miss M. E.
Treadway, secretary; Vineyard Workers, Mrs. L. E. Sevin, secretary; Ladies' Benevolent society, Mrs. W. W.
Beckwith, secretary; Progressive Missionary club, Miss Nellie E. Arnold, secretary; Extra Care Day band, Miss C. H. Hodge, secretary; Sunday school, S. B. Palmer, superintendent; George A. Ashby, treasurer, Frank L.
Arnold, secretary; Library committee, Mrs. Lucius Brown, acting chairman; Home department, Miss Juliette Doane, superintendent; Preston chapel Sunday school, Miss Anna B. Storms, assistant superintendent; Miss E. M. M.
Storms, secretary pro tem, and Brendon B. Allyn, treasurer; Christian Endeavor society, Miss Nellie E. Franklin, secretary; Dorcas society, Miss Anna B. Storms, secretary. They were all present in the usual printed form, and showed a year of activity ladies: Misses Clementine Graham, Edith Thompson, Robina Dunlop, Elizabeth Kispert, Anna Crawford and Helen Larkin.

Funeral of Mrs. Joseph Fuller.
The funeral of Mrs. Jennie Wilcox, wife of Joseph Fuller, held Tuesday day morning from her late home, on lower Hunters avenue, and a regular service was held by Rev. L. L.
Massicotte at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Among the large attendance were people from Pitchville, where the deceased lived for a number of years; New London, Fort Point, Bridgeport, Kingston, R. I. and Jewett City.
The bearers were Leon Savage, William Hodge, Henry and Napoleon Den-jardins of Taftville and George and Edward Congdon of Borrah. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery in Greenville, and Mrs. Burke were in charge of the arrangements.

Personals.
Architect Thomas O'Connell of Boston was a visitor in town Wednesday.

Joseph C. Marston has written home from Jacksonville, Fla. He is enjoying his trip through the south.

Stanislaus Bosnie and family, who formerly lived on North B street, and left for Canada several weeks ago, returned to the village again Thursday.

A LITTLE RED SPOT

Novel Experiment by Which It May Be Made to Disappear.

A peculiar feature about psoriasis, the new skin discovery is that no one is asked to buy it without first sending to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, for an experimental sample and applying it to an affected part of the skin, about the size of a silver dollar. It will clear the spot so treated in twenty-four hours—a remarkable visual demonstration of its power.
While psoriasis has been mentioned principally in connection with the cure of eczema, the most stubborn of skin diseases, it must be remembered that when used for it, hives, pimples, blotches, acne, itching feet, scaly scalp chafing of infants and similar minor skin troubles its action is all the more pronounced, results being seen after an overnight application.
As only a small quantity of psoriasis is necessary to cure such cases, a special fifty-cent package, usually sufficient, has been placed on sale at The Emergency Laboratories and Smith's drug store in Norwich, Larue's in Putnam, Woodward's in Danvers and Chesbro's in Williamstown and other leading drug stores throughout the country.

NORWICH TOWN

Unexpected Death of Miss Agnes Gough—Genuine Diversion at Mystery Social.

Miss Agnes Gough, daughter of Matthew and Jennie Gough, died Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at her home on Wauwecus hill. Her death was a great shock to her friends, as it came after a long illness. She was graduated from St. Patrick's parochial school and had attended the Willamantic normal. She had a sweet disposition, never showing impatience, and won the love of those about her.
Miss Gough is survived by her father and mother, two brothers, Joseph Gough of Hartford and Bertram Gough; and four sisters, the oldest formerly Mary Gough, known in religion as Sister Mary Luke of Saint Rose's convent, Meriden; Miss Teresa Gough, Miss Pauline Gough and Miss Lillian Gough.

Mystery Social Kept Audience Guessing.

The Epworth league held a mystery social on Wednesday evening in the vestry of the Methodist Episcopal church. A family tree bore slips of paper, each bearing a name, the object being to secure the largest number of slips having the same last name. Mrs. Wilson Miller found the most. Then followed mysterious discussion of letters placed on the board to be arranged. Mrs. F. H. Bushnell and Harry Eastland were most successful.
The social, which was only a true diversion, was most successful. A concertum pie then afforded diversion.
From the pie were drawn conundrums and candy fastened together.
Other numbers were: Reading, A Warning by Mrs. F. H. Bushnell; Could He? by Mrs. F. H. Bushnell; Then molasses candy and crystallized popcorn were served. Mrs. Jerome Greer next read The Infallible Mrs.
Horn. Who am I? On the backs of the young men were slips of paper on which were written the name of a prominent person. Each one from conversation had to guess whom he represented. The last number was a game of solitaire by Clement Bushnell. The frequent applause testified to the quality of the entertainment.

The afternoon whist players met on Wednesday with Mrs. A. R. Keables of the New London turnpike.
Harry Stott of Plain Hill spent a day this week with his cousin, Mrs.
Ulysses Cooper of Central Village.

A sleighing party of friends from the city surprised Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hendler of Plain Hill on Wednesday evening. An enjoyable time was spent.

Mrs. Lizette Gardner and Mrs. Robert Gardner have returned from a visit in New London after a few days' visit with their aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Kinney of Town street.

The Helping Hand club met with Mrs. W. R. Lathrop on Thursday afternoon. Twenty-one were present, the largest number this winter. Eighteen were at last week's meeting, which was held at Mrs. Eliza Geary's.
